By FRANK CRADIN

AN EXCELLENT METHOD OF MAKING AN IMPRESSION, IS TO EXPRESS THE PERSON'S OPINION ABOUT A PERSON NOT AT ALL.

STAYING TOO LONG EVERY ONE YOU MEET
WILL GIVE YOU A CLASP
A BAKING

ENTERTAINING ONE FOR HOURS BY TALKING FOR HOURS ABOUT THE SUN AND THE MOON AND
THE RAIN

THEY WOULD HAVE YOU THINK YOU ARE A BORE
IF YOU WERE

THE WASTE OF YOUR TIME AND ENERGY
ON A PERSON WHO DOES NOT CARE

ONE OF THE MOST EFFICIENT
WAYS OF BEING A BORE IS TO TALK ABOUT THE LATEST FASHION

Vignettes of Life—SUMMER PHOTOGRAPHY

By F. C. VAN GELDEREN

Let your friends take snapshots of you on the beach. They will be sure to get the camera close to you. The next thing you know, you'll be in a most awkward position.

The common-sense effect of the beach is that you will find the time to enjoy the view.

The best time to take snapshots is when you are in the middle of the day. It is then that the sun is at its height and the shadows are at their shortest.

John G. G. G.

The best time to take snapshots is when you are in the middle of the day. It is then that the sun is at its height and the shadows are at their shortest.

The accompanying crowd is helping the movie man take a passing picture by taking their place in the foreground. At the right is a young man who has been told to make his own picture, and is trying to make his picture...

The bobbed-haired girl will give her hair a good back and forth view, turn a few more springs for the movie men and you are done.

A picture of the best of the summer is one that also is a picture of the best of the summer. It is a picture of the best of the summer, and it is a picture of the best of the summer.

Vignettes of Life—SUMMER PHOTOGRAPHY

By FRANK GODWIN

Don't let your friends take snapshots of you on the beach. They say the camera doesn't lie but the insert shows that, figuratively speaking, it can distort the facts to a most alarming degree.

The local photographer made this gem of Pa and Ma on their first anniversary in the summer of 1887.

The Conan-Doyle effect is the result of the first day with the new camera.

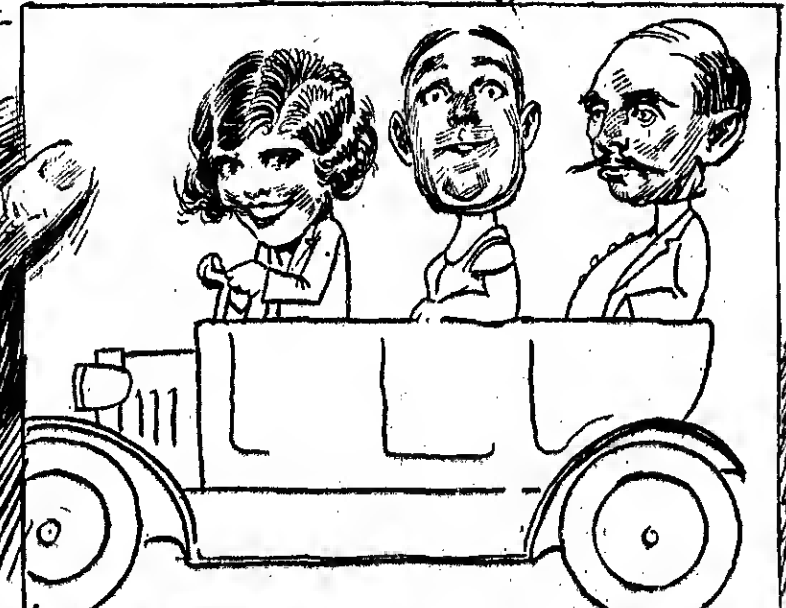

The news photographer always gets the cold and story from the debutante.

The accommodating crowd is helping the movie man take a passing notable by adding their faces to the foreground. At the right is a young man who has been told he looks like John Barrymore and is trying his profile...

The bobbed-haired gun-girl will give him both profiles, front, back and birds-eye views, turn a few hand springs for the movie men, and yell for more..

A masterpiece of the boardwalk photographer. One can also be photographed by this process shaking hands with Babe Ruth, Columbus or Trotsky.

FLORAL LODGE

Dear Tom:

Here I am at last. Thought you might be interested to hear about my first week up here.

The gentleman from whom I am renting my bungalow met the train with his motor and drove me out to Floral Lodge. It is a snug little villa, not too large and furnished most quaintly with the most original furniture.

I had a swim in one of the nearby lakes and afterward a fine ride on a spirited steed. I have already learned some very interesting facts about the local flora.

The birds are very friendly and come right up to the lodge to be fed.

I brought some tackle and have had fish to eat every day.

Met two of the local shebs today, so altogether it's a grand vacation.

Ever yours,

Jim
